FEATURED WINERIES OF THE WINTER

angel vine

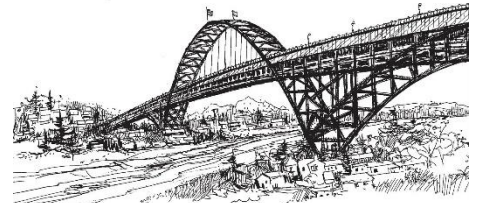

Angel Vine is a family-owned Oregon winery committed to crafting award-winning Zinfandel and Primitivo-based wines from premier vineyards in the Pacific Northwest. Sourcing grapes from Washington's Horse Heaven Hills, Wahluke Slope, Walla Walla Valley, and the Columbia Valley AVAs, Angel Vine produces fruit forward yet balanced wines. In addition to Zinfandel and its Italian cousin, Primitivo, Angel Vine produces wines from Grenache, Mourvedre, Petite Sirah, and Pinot Noir. Contact Angel Vine at 503.969.7209 or zinman@angelvine.net

HELIOTERRA

Helioterra Wines is a small, artisan producer of Northwest wines made at an urban winery in SE Portland, Oregon. The wines are pretty, elegant and graceful in style. Winemaker Anne Ebenreiter Hubatch partners with exceptional regional vineyard growers to craft wines that demonstrate the best that the Northwest offers.

"Helioterra wines are sensuous and evocative in style, 'to honor the wine grapes and the fertile vineyards where they are grown.'"

SEVEN BRIDGES winery

Seven Bridges Winery has been crafting robust, warm climate wines from some of the premier vineyards of the Columbia Valley since 2008. Winemaker Bob Switzer uses traditional, labor intensive methods to coax every ounce of richness and intensity from the grapes. The winery's location in downtown Portland includes a production facility and a tasting room in an industrial waterfront area with views of seven of the beautiful bridges from which they adopted their name.
